

ABORIGINALS GET TITLE

The Governor, Sir Rohan Delacombe, today officially handed over the deeds to the aboriginal trustees of the Lake Tyers settlement, near Lakes Entrance.

The CP whip in the Legislative Assembly, Mr. Evans, who has opposed the giving of the 4000-acre settlement only to those who live at Lake Tyers, did not attend the presentation.