

Vicatos

Ningla Ana call to nation

ABORIGINALS are to call for nation-wide stop-work meetings on National Aboriginal Day, July 14, in support of the first moratorium for black rights.

The moratorium, or Ningla Ana ("we are hungry for our land") is in support of land rights, compensation to all Aborigines for loss of land and improved conditions for Aborigines.