

China host to aboriginals

HONG KONG.—A group of Australian aboriginals has crossed into China for a month-long visit as guests of the Chinese Government.

They left on Monday by train for Canton after arriving in Hong Kong from Sydney at the weekend.

A spokesman for the 10-man group said they would seek Chinese aid in forming an international lobby to shame the Australian Government into recognising aboriginal needs. —

AAP.