

THE STORMING OF THE 'EMBASSY'

The climax:

Police moving in to break up the Aboriginal "embassy" in Canberra yesterday grapple with demonstrators guarding one of the tents.

The warning:

Inspector J. C. Johnson earlier, telling "embassy" members that the tents must go.

After the battle:

Police carry away tents and bedding. (Aborigines fight to last tent, P 3.)