

Aborigines 'black power' protest in Peking

3rd November 1972

Nine Aborigines now visiting China stand in Tien An Men Square, Peking, some giving the clenched-fist "black power" salute. The leader of the delegation, Mr Charles Dixon, of Sydney, is standing in the centre of the group, partly obscured by Mr Peter Long of Alice Springs.