Aboriginal girl in Quest

↑ AUDREY COBBY, 23, an aboriginal nurse, is an entrant in the Miss South Australia quest. She is seen in yesterday's wirephoto from Adelaide ready to go before the judge helped by another candidate, Marlene Roos.

Miss Cobby, the first aboriginal to enter the contest in South Australia, said last night: "I have entered to help raise the status of my people. But now other aborigines think I am a snob."
