Indij Readers for Big Fullas and Little Fullas is a collection of literacy acquisition classroom stories from urban and rural Indigenous communities around NSW. The aim of Indij Reader's stories is twofold: to help students learn to read and to encourage and support teachers to explore with their students contemporary Indigenous perspectives and issues. The stories deal in a relaxed and often amusing way with issues that affect the lives of all children: culture, family, self esteem, setting goals, good health, tolerance and school attendance. Each Teacher's Guide includes lesson plans, cultural information and blackline masters for every book in the series. The aim of Indij Readers' stories is twofold: to help students learn to read; and to encourage and support teachers to explore with their students, contemporary Indigenous perspectives and issues, and thus progress Reconciliation in Australia. The stories deal in a relaxed and often amusing way with issues that affect the lives of all children: culture, family, self esteem, pride, setting goals and working toward them, good health, humour, tolerance and school attendance.

Aboriginal Australia

A Traditional Culture in an Organic World

652495 UP-LS $56.99

The Indigenous inhabitants of Australia had a rich and highly developed culture before the coming of the Europeans. Not all initial contact between European and Aboriginal culture was negative and some early settlers left detailed impressions of the culture and daily life of the Aboriginal people they encountered. The aim of this book is to try and impart an understanding of traditional Aboriginal culture and society at the time of this 'first contact'.

Aboriginal Australians

NEW

692726 LS+ $35.99

In the creation of any new society, there are winners and losers. So it was with Australia as it grew from a colonial outpost to an affluent society. Richard Broome tells the history of Australia from the standpoint of the original

Australians: those who lost most in the early colonial struggle for power.
